

Bank solutions

Banks needed to update its security management system with latest IP network-based access control system equipment, to protect its assets and people 24/7.

IP network-based surveillance digital recorders to ensure stable communications with 100+ surveillance cameras, wireless locking systems on 50 glass doors and other security management software to protect its assets and people, and also to provide safe working environment for its staff.

Benefits

- Integrate access control, ticketing, x-ray machinery, face detection, number plate recognition and others for full crowd management
- Use the video and software to manage the crowds and protect against excessive wear and tear
- Central management for multi department access
- Fire and smoke detection software generated alerts
- Flame resistant, heat resistant, washer wiper and other multiple housings

Features

- Unlimited number of cameras
- Video analytics software for object counting – track the numbers exiting and entering the premises
- Apply remote cameras with on board recording when connectivity to central servers is not possible
- Video software to manage multiple sites with multiple cameras

- System integrates with other alarms and alert devices (radar etc)
- Covert cameras can be located along
- Video analytics: detects humans over wildlife
- Integrates on to existing networks
- Facial detection
- Remote playback and unlimited storage capabilities through the network of NVRs

Follow us on the website www.bikal.co.uk

Bikal

25 Eccleston square
SW1V 1NS,UK

Tel:+44 (0) 844 804 2400

Fax: +44 (0)20 7233 9333

Email: marketing@bikalipcctv.com

